REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1, 2, 5-15, 17, 23-28 are allowed over prior arts and renumbered to claims 1-20.

The present claims require that the each component of the claimed composition be limited to particular weight amounts that are not suggested or made obvious by the prior arts. For example, while George (US 3431340) teaches a burn treatment composition consisting essentially of 35-65 % castor oil and 35-65 % of cod liver oil and Soto teaches a composition for treating skin injuries comprising 10 parts of beeswax in olive oil base, it would not have been obvious to a skilled artisan to come up with the weight amounts of the ingredients as required by the present applicant.

Objection to specification and claim rejection made under 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph, that are indicated in the previous Office action dated June 29, 2007 are withdrawn in view of the applicants' claim amendment and remarks, filed on September 12, 2007.

Objection to the specification is overcome as applicant has incorporated the disclosure of originally filed claims. With respect to claim rejection made under 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph, applicant distinguishes the facts of the present case from that of Amgen, Inc. v. Chugai Pharm. Co.. See 18 U.S.P.Q. 2d 1016 (Fed. Cir. 1991). Applicant argued that the term "about" in the present case is not indefinite because the meaning of the term is not in doubt and there is no close prior art. Applicant also asserts that, since the form of the measurement in the present case is in percent-by-weight, there is not a wide range of error associated with the form of measurement nor will there be difficulty in determining infringing activity value.

Examiner finds the argument persuasive, and views that the term "about" in this case may be given reasonable scope by one of ordinary skill in the art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Gina C. Yu whose telephone number is 571-272-8605. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Friday, from 8:00AM until 5:30 PM.
